Title: Exploring Bosnia: Immigration, Opportunities, and Culture in the Heart of Europe

Traveling is your fundamental right.
- No one can deprive you of the right to travel.
- Consider moving to Bosnia for a better lifestyle.

Bosnia is a decent country with a rich history and unique position in Europe.
- Bosnia has a population of 3.2 million and experienced a devastating attack in 1992-1995 resulting in 1 lakh deaths and displacement of 2.2 million people.
- It is the cheapest country in Europe and the only Muslim-majority country on the continent, located in the middle of three countries.

Bosnia is a relatively young country with low unemployment and low cost of living.

- The country gained independence in 1991-1992 after being part of Yugoslavia and has a low unemployment rate.
- It is the cheapest European country where you can spend 200 Euros per month.

Bosnia offers job opportunities and peaceful living
- Bosnia has job opportunities for IT professionals, healthcare workers, teachers, doctors, miners, and agriculture professionals.
- Bosnia is a peaceful place with a significant Muslim population and the sound of Azan can always be heard.

Mosques and chanda system in Bosnia.
- Mosques in Bosnia are sustained through the chanda system, with donations to cover expenses such as rent and bills.
- Bosnia is also highlighted as a potentially favorable place for marriage due to loyal and beautiful wives.

IT professionals and others can immigrate to Bosnia for work or marriage
- Bosnia is open to IT professionals, doctors, and engineers, with an embassy in Pakistan and a clear immigration process.
- Immigrants can work or get married in Bosnia, and the country is supportive of Muslims and Pakistanis.

Bosnia offers job opportunities and better pay for certain professions
- Bosnia provides good rates for certain professions like carpenters, car drivers, truck drivers, and farmers
- Living and working in Bosnia allows for a better lifestyle and the opportunity to travel all over Europe

Exploring immigration opportunities in Bosnia, Canada, and America.
- Discussing the process and links for immigration in the video.

"Exploring Estonia: Digital Nomad Visa and E-Residency | A Tour of Estonia's Peaceful Cities and Unique Opportunities"

Estonia is a small country with two distinct programs for digital nomads and e-residency.
- Estonia is geographically located between Norway, Latvia, Lithuania, Poland, Belarus, and Finland.
- The total population of Estonia is 1.3 million, similar to the total population of Islamabad.

Estonia is a peaceful country with job opportunities in IT and other professions.
- Tallinn is the capital city where Skype was invented, and it's a welcoming place for Pakistanis and English speakers.

- There are job opportunities in IT with salaries ranging from 2000 to 5000 Euros, and other professions may offer slightly lower salaries.

Estonia e-residency has limitations for Pakistanis
- Estonia e-residency allows you to open a company and bank account remotely
- Limited benefits for Pakistanis due to visa restrictions and embassy issues

Estonia E-Residency and Digital Nomad Visa
- Estonia E-Residency allows opening an online company and obtaining a visa to Estonia, making it easy to go to Europe.
- Digital Nomad Visa requires earning 3-4 thousand euros per month and having a long-term contract with a client, with 44 countries offering this visa.

Estonia digital nomad visa requirements
- Requirement 1: Full-time remote job with varying income thresholds for different countries.
- Requirement 2: Client cannot be in the same country as the applicant.

Estonia offers digital residency for remote workers.
- Digital residency allows you to work remotely while living in Estonia and accessing essential services such as banking and utilities.
- Digital residency in Estonia provides a high quality of life, including access to education, healthcare, and a favorable climate.

Estonia and Norway are advanced countries for digital nomads.
- Work done in Estonia and Norway is completed in seconds, while it takes 6-10 months in Pakistan.
- Spending time outside Pakistan may make it difficult to return and settle in Pakistan permanently.

Encouragement to explore opportunities abroad
- The speaker encourages people to consider opportunities to work and earn money outside their country.
- The speaker shares a hopeful message for viewers to find respectable jobs and lives abroad.

Join me on What’s App ========== Bermuda's "Work from Bermuda" program, introduced in 2020, provides remote workers, digital nomads, and students the opportunity for a one-year stay. The application process is swift and simple, requiring eligibility criteria such as a valid passport, 18 years or older age, non-Bermudan employment, health insurance, a clean criminal record, and sufficient income. The application procedure involves gathering digital copies of necessary documents, completing an online form, paying a non-refundable fee of $263, and submitting the application. Documents include proof of employment or enrollment, passport, visa (if needed), health insurance, and financial information. Applicants must also provide a scanned passport photo, an emergency contact outside Bermuda, and a start date within 9 months of the application. The total cost of the one-year permit is detailed in the application form, with approval hinging on submission of all required items, payment of the fee, and meeting the eligibility criteria. https://forms.gov.bm/wfb/Apply https://forms.gov.bm/WFB ========== Exceptional leader in data sciences with 12+ years of experience leading medium to large-size teams across diverse geographic regions. Title: Living and Studying in Germany: Visa, Education, and Living Costs

Germany visa process is lengthy but there are many ways to legally enter Germany
- Germany has a population of around 80 million and 5.5 million Muslims with 3000 mosques
- The easiest way to go to Germany is through education, where bachelor's programs are in German and many courses for master's and PhD are in English

Living in Germany requirements and benefits
- Need to deposit 10-12000 Euros in a bank account for a year, affordable health insurance based on salary
- Welfare state provides allowances for children, unemployment benefits for those without a job

Two methods to go to Germany: Study visa and Job Seeker's visa
- Study visa requires showing 1110,000 Euros and allows part-time work
- Job Seeker's visa allows finding a job in Germany before applying for a visa

Getting a job in Germany and visa options
- You can get 1100 Euros in Germany while searching for a job for 6 months. Once you get a job, the account will be released.
- If you have a job offer, you don't need a blocked account or money. You can show the offer and ask for it.

Getting a visa to work or study in Germany
- Options include start-up, entrepreneurial, and digital nomad visas
- Requirements include proof of financial worth and job appointment letter for job seekers visa

Issues faced by Muslims living in Germany
- Muslim teachers not allowed to wear scarves in schools in 16 out of 8 states
- Public naturism causing discomfort and inconvenience for families

Concerns about public nudity and cultural differences in Germany
- Muslim population growing rapidly in Germany with opportunities for education and employment
- Various visa categories and options for living and studying in Germany

Seeking feedback on creating more visa-related videos and launching a dedicated website
- Asking for feedback on creating 25 videos on visa print details and more about different countries
- Requesting feedback on launching a portal and continuing the visa video series

Detailed Summary for Let's Go to Malaysia! | چلو چلو ملايشيا چلو | Living in Malaysia | Working in Malaysia | by Merlin

Zeeshan Usmani introduces the Chalo Chalo series and discusses Malaysia as a cheap and welcoming Islamic country for digital nomads.

Malaysia is an interesting and affordable Islamic country.
- Malaysia is a cheap country to visit in terms of cost of living and accommodation.
- Malaysia offers a Digital Nomad Visa program with minimal requirements.

Malaysia is the cheapest country for digital nomads
- You can bring your children to school
- Living costs are very cheap
- Housing is affordable (350 dollars a month in the city, 200-250 dollars outside the city)
- Monthly internet is 26 dollars
- Food expenses for two people are within 2.5 dollars
- Digital nomad visa fee is 275 dollars with 75 percent money back if rejected
- Parents are allowed on the digital nomad visa

Malaysia offers a flexible digital nomad visa with low taxes.
- Malaysia's digital nomad visa allows remote work from anywhere in the world with zero tax.
- If the client is in Malaysia, a 30% tax is applicable for digital nomads.
- Parents can also be brought to Malaysia at a low cost.
- YouTube content creators are eligible for the digital nomad visa.

You can prove 2,000 hours and qualify for a working visa.
- There are three categories of working visa - EP1, EP2, EP3.
- EP1 requires earning more than 10,000 ringgit in Malaysia and offers a 5-year visa.
- EP2 is renewed for 2 years and requires earning 5,000 to 10,000 ringgit.
- EP3 is for unskilled labor and drivers.

Malaysia offers various types of visas for investors and farmers
- Investors can apply for a 1-year visa, but cannot bring family members
- Bangladeshis cannot apply for the farmer's visa
- Malaysia does not allow agricultural visas
- Malaysia My Second Home visa is the cheapest program, requiring 1.5 lakh ringgit
- With Malaysia My Second Home visa, you can get residency for your whole family
- 20,000 dollars must be invested for the visa application

There are various employment-based visas for immigration.
- Some employment-based visas provide immigration sponsorship.
- The fees for different visas vary, with the second home's fee being $20, the digital nomad's fee being $275, and the work visa's fee being around $200.
- If you want to immigrate to a country with no food, internet, electricity, law and order problems, or if you prefer an Islamic country, Malaysia is a good option.
- Malaysia has good food, Muslim culture, peaceful people, and decent income.

Malaysia offers various visas and tax benefits for foreigners
- Visas include residency, work visa, digital nomad visa, and MM2H Malaysia My Second Home
- No tax is imposed on income earned in Malaysia
- Other countries have taxes ranging from 11% to 35%
- Malaysian employees are subject to 30% tax
- Opportunities to apply for visas and job sponsorship for immigration

Reading books is important for learning about emerging technologies
- Books on sale at Jashn-e-Azadi with discounts of up to 75%
- Website launch promised in 2-3 weeks

"UK Visas Explained: Skilled Worker, Founders, and Creators Visas Demystified in Urdu | Zeeshan Usmani"

Types of visas to settle and work in the UK
- There are more than 31 types of visas to apply for settling in the UK, including work and study visas.
- Visas like skilled worker visa and founders visa have specific eligibility criteria and fees, but do not require a job offer for settlement.

UK Visa Options Overview
- Creators Visa: For content creators with a strong portfolio and following on social media platforms
- Sportsman Visa: For athletes and sports professionals who have competed at national or international levels

Different types of work visas in the UK
- If you work for British Telecom or its subsidiary, you can apply for a visa. There is also a visa for suppliers or service providers. If you provide services to a UK-based company, you can apply for the global business mobility visa.
- There are seasonal work visas for poultry workers, horticulture workers, and exchange visas for those who have studied in the UK on a government scholarship.

UK has a rich history and diverse opportunities
- UK is known for its inventions including stamps and champagne, although the verification is uncertain.
- The UK is home to over 100 universities, including the prestigious Oxford and Cambridge, along with the world's largest library, the British Library.

Health care visa is available for various professions with 5-year validity and low cost.
- Professions eligible for the visa include doctors, nurses, paramedical staff, social care, and administration with experience.
- Even those in adult care and senior service providers can apply.
- Graduate work visa provides 2-3 year work opportunities for those who have completed their studies in the UK.
- Global talent visa does not require a job offer and can be applied for at a young age.

Applying for work in the UK as a computer scientist is a quick and online process
- The total processing time is 3 weeks with no need for embassy visits or interviews
- Once approved, you can easily collect your passport and residence card, with the potential for family visa sponsorship

Three visa types in UK without job offer
- Indian Young Professionals Scheme for 18-30, 2 years, 250 pounds
- Youth Mobility Scheme for Pakistan, Bangladesh, Afghanistan, 18-30, 250 pounds

Encouraging legal ways of going to the UK
- Providing information on visa types and experiences
- Highlighting the drawbacks of living in the UK

Moving to UK for work with a global talent visa
- The job pay in UK is significantly higher than in Pakistan
- Consider settling in Bundleyside, Scotland for affordable housing

Detailed Summary for Let's Go to Australia | چلو چلو آسٹریلیا چلو | Job in Australia | Work in Australia by Merlin

Australia is a great place to earn money, with information on scholarships and visas provided on their upcoming website.

How unskilled workers can move to Australia and get $10,000
- Australia is the oldest country with ease of living
- It has a coastline of 90% and is the 6th largest country with a big economy

Australia is the 6th biggest country with a diverse population and various immigration pathways.
- Australia has a population of 25 million to 250 million, with Karachi having a smaller population than California.
- There are 831,000 Muslims and 95,000 Pakistanis in Australia.
- Australia consists of 6 states and many islands, with major cities like Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane, Perth, and Hobart.
- The immigration visa programs in Australia are categorized into investor pathway, workers pathway, and family union pathway.

Australia offers various pathways for work and study opportunities.
- Australia has over 8,000 islands, including Tasmania known for having the cleanest air.
- There are numerous scholarships available for students, such as Monash University, Bourne University, and La Trobe.

Australia has a severe labor shortage and is offering scholarships and incentives for skilled workers.
- Australia's borders were closed for several years due to COVID.
- Australia needs 2 lakh skilled workers per quarter and is facing an economic problem.
- Skilled workers earn more money than educated workers in Australia.
- There is a high demand for laborers, carpenters, and construction workers in Australia.
- Western Australia is offering a $10,000 incentive for skilled workers to come to the country.

India's vocational training and recognition programs help individuals secure employment abroad
- India provides vocational training and affiliation with international bodies, resulting in recognized certificates for specialized courses such as plumber and chef
- On the other hand, Pakistan lacks proper courses and verified certificates for vocational skills
- India's Kamyab Jawan program allows vocational institutions like TIFTA to operate and help individuals secure employment in Australia
- Australia is the top country for providing visa opportunities to refugees and asylum seekers, making it an attractive option for PTI people and others running and hiding
- Scholarships are available for individuals with vocational training certificates in fields like plumbing, carpentry, goldsmithing, blacksmithing, farming, and electrical work

Educated individuals can apply for the Global Talent visa to work in Australia
- Global Talent visa allows individuals aged 55-60 with a higher degree to work in Australia
- Skilled independent visa (class 189) has a point-based system with a minimum requirement of 65 points

Australian Immigration is possible through TSS visa and self-petition.
- TSS visa allows self-petition without sponsorship.
- Australian friends can help with recommendation letters and Pakistani students have a high chance of success.

Australia is a better option for skilled workers compared to America.
- You can earn more money in America, but it is easier to go to Australia.
- We will launch a website soon with information about scholarships, visas, and estates in Australia.

Notes on Zeeshan Osmani's Speech about Slovakia:

1. Introduction:
   - Zeeshan Osmani introduces himself and welcomes the audience to the series.
   - Highlights the importance of discussing less-known countries, starting with Slovakia.
2. Geographical Information:
   - Slovakia's capital is Bratislava, the only capital bordering two countries - Hungary and Austria.
   - Vienna, Austria's capital, is only 60 km away, making it the world's shortest flight of 10 minutes between the two capitals.
3. Population and Religion:
   - Slovakia has a population of 5.4 million.
   - The Muslim population is estimated to be between 3,800 to 5,000.
   - Unique fact: Slovakia is the only European Union country without a mosque.
   - Mentions other countries without mosques: Vatican City, Monaco, and San Marino.
4. Islamophobia in Slovakia:
   - In 2007, Slovakia passed a law requiring 50,000 signatures for a religion to be officially recognized, making it difficult for Muslims.
   - Lack of recognition means restrictions on teaching Islam in schools, opening Islamic schools, building mosques, or making adhans.
5. Encouragement to Settle in Slovakia:
   - Encourages Muslims to settle in countries where there are no mosques to promote Islam.
   - Shares personal experience of visiting Slovakia, emphasizing the feeling of safety and hospitality.
6. Challenges in Pakistan:
   - Reflects on the challenges in Pakistan, where halal ways are often closed, leading to corruption and other issues.
   - Stresses the need for a sense of security and safety in the country.
7. Interactions in Slovakia:
   - Shares a personal interaction with Slovakian officials, including giving them copies of the Quran.
   - Highlights the positive impact of personal interactions in dispelling stereotypes.
8. Slovakian Scholarship Programs:
   - Promotes a Slovakian national scholarship program for master's and PhD students, covering expenses for 10 months.

- Urges Pakistani students to apply for the scholarship and experience life in Slovakia.

9. Permanent Residence in Slovakia:
    - Describes limited options for permanent residence, with family reunions not readily available.
    - Suggests studying as a viable way to experience life in Slovakia.
10. Job Opportunities:
    - Limited job opportunities for Muslims in Slovakia, mainly in mining and agriculture.
11. Call for Prayer and Contribution:
    - Encourages contributing to the Muslim community in Slovakia, even if it means establishing small mosques.
    - Hopes for mutual understanding and closeness among people worldwide.
12. Closing Remarks:
    - Zeeshan Osmani signs off with a request for prayers and introduces himself again.
    - Expresses gratitude for the audience's attention.

Notes on Zeeshan Osmani's Speech about Russia:

1. Introduction:
    - Zeeshan Osmani greets the audience with "Assalamu alaikum" and introduces himself.
    - Talks about the ongoing "Chalo Chalo" series and focuses on Russia in this episode.
2. Geographical Information:
    - Russia is the largest country in the world, covering Siberia, where only 20% of the population resides.
    - Siberia constitutes 77% of Russia's landmass.
3. Time Zones and Train Network:
    - Russia has 11 time zones, making it ideal for experiencing jet lag.

- Russia boasts the world's largest train network, including connections to China and Mongolia.

4. Visa Information:
    - Cruise option: Pakistani passport holders can visit Russia without a visa for 72-48 hours on a cruise.
    - Russia has a population of 143 million, with approximately 10% being Muslims.
    - Estimates of Muslim population range from 14 million (official) to 25 million (unofficial).
5. Muslim-Friendly Country:
    - Russia is considered Muslim-friendly, with 67% of the population having favorable views of Muslims.
    - Approximately 50 lakh (5 million) tourists visit Russia each year.
6. Regions with Muslim Majority:
    - Some regions in Russia, such as Rajasthan, Chichnaya, and Ingushita, have Muslim majorities.
    - Historical context: Muslims supported Great Russians during the time of Great Ketrine.
7. Pakistanis in Russia:
    - Despite being the biggest country, Russia only has 1200 Pakistanis residing there.
    - Emphasizes the missed opportunities for business and collaboration.
8. Russian Currency and Digital Visa:
    - Currency: 1 ruble is equal to 3 Pakistani rupees.
    - Russia offers a digital visa for 44 countries, excluding Pakistan, allowing visa-free entry for Indians.
9. Visa Application and Investor Visa:
    - Encourages Pakistanis to apply for a tourist visa (90 days) or explore an investor visa option for a 3-year residency.
    - Investor visa requires opening a business, employing 10 people, and showing an annual revenue of 10 million rubles.
10. Study Opportunities:
    - Highlights the study opportunities in Russia, including government fellowships, collaborations with MIT, and various disciplines.
11. Cost of Living:
    - Russia is a cost-effective country, with living costs 81% less than in the United States.
12. Citizenship by Investment:
    - Discusses Russia's citizenship by investment program, which requires establishing a business with a revenue of 3 crore Pakistani rupees.
13. Three Ways to Go to Russia:
    - Study visa, tourist visa, and citizenship by investment are the three main ways to explore opportunities in Russia.
14. Personal Experience:
    - Shares personal experiences of visiting Russia for four days during a holiday.
15. Series Continuation:
    - Expresses the intention to continue the series and encourages feedback from the audience.
    - Asks for prayers and signs off as Zeeshan Osmani.

Summary of Zeeshan Osmani's Notes on Italy:

Introduction:

- Zeeshan Osmani introduces the Chalo Chalo series and shifts focus to Italy, emphasizing its beauty in architecture, culture, fashion, and literature.
- Personal experience of visiting Italy 11-12 times and exploring cities like Rome, Venice, Florence, Milan, Naples, Pompeii, Capri, Pisa, Leaning Tower of Pisa, Amalfi, Lake Como, Sardinia, and Dolomites.

- Humorous anecdote about staying at the same hotel where Deepika Padukone got married at Lake Como.

Italy's Demographics:

- Italy's population is approximately 59 million, with 1.4 million Muslims, constituting 3% of the population.
- More than 2 lakhs of Pakistanis reside in Italy, often coming for work visas or studies.

Contributions to the World:

- Italy has made significant contributions, including the invention of the battery and the creation of pizza.
- Italian cuisine, such as pasta and espresso consumption, is highlighted.
- The world's first bank was established in Italy.

Geography and Micro States:

- Italy shares borders with Switzerland, France, Monaco, Austria, Slovenia, and others.
- Three micro-states within Italy: Vatican City, San Marino, and Monaco.

Tourist Destinations and Unique Facts:

- Italy boasts ancient cities, with some dating back 8.5 lakh years.
- The Vatican City experience, including attending the Pope's sermon, is shared.
- The uniqueness of throwing coins in Trevi Fountain for good luck is mentioned.

Visa Types and Opportunities:

- Mention of the upcoming digital nomad visa and the elective residence visa, requiring 32,000 euros in the bank.
- Italy offers opportunities to buy houses for as low as one euro, particularly in regions with a labor shortage.

Educational Opportunities:

- Italy is highlighted as an excellent destination for studies, with scholarships available from various sources.
- English-speaking programs are mentioned, making it accessible for international students.

Work Opportunities and Pi Campus:

- Opportunities for skilled workers, handymen, plumbers, and electricians due to severe labor shortages.
- Pi Campus, an AI-focused campus, is discussed, offering fellowships and programs for AI enthusiasts.

Financial Considerations and Residency:

- Various pathways to residency, including self-employment, investment in housing, and scholarships.
- Italy's negative migration rate leads to abandoned houses, available for purchase at low costs.

Cultural Observations:

- Observations on Italian dining customs, such as the presentation of bread and the consumption of salad as dessert.
- Notes on the art and hospitality of the Italian people.

Guidance and Practical Tips:

- Encourages viewers to explore Italy through study visas, Pi Campus fellowships, or self-employment visas.
- Emphasizes the importance of avoiding illegal work to maintain a positive reputation for oneself and the country.

Closing Remarks:

- Encourages viewers to ask specific questions in the comments and shares information about the upcoming website, helpmemigrate.com.
- Calls for collective guidance and prayers for those planning to move to Italy.

Note: This summary aims to capture the key points from Zeeshan Osmani's notes on Italy. It may not include every detail mentioned in the original content.

Education and Opportunities:

- Qatar has invested in education, hosting seven foreign universities, including Texas A&M and Virginia Commonwealth.
- Qatar Foundation offers full scholarships with accommodation and interest-free loans.
- Permanent Residency available after 20 years of residence or 10 years for those born in Qatar, meeting specific criteria.
- Investment of 5 million QAR grants a 10-year PR.

Religious Diversity:

- Population breakdown: 62-65% Muslims, 15% Hindus, 14-4% Christians, 3% Buddhists, 2% atheists, and 1.5% other religions.
- Qatar considered a safe country despite involvement in international mediation efforts.

Economic and Development Highlights:

- Qatar possesses the world's third-largest natural gas reserves.
- 5000-year-old cultural heritage.
- High GDP per capita: $67,000 (three times Saudi Arabia, higher than UAE).
- Zero income tax; excellent facilities; temperatures up to 40-50°C in June-July.

Visa and Entry Information:

- Online visa available through HAYA platform for certain nationalities.
- Visa on arrival for more than 150 countries.
- For jobs, visit portals like Nokri Gulf, Gulf Carriers, Gulf Talent, Move Abroad, and LinkedIn.

Investment Opportunities:

- Qatar Investment Fund: $100 billion, invested globally.
- Shareholder in Bank of America and properties in the UK, including Heathrow Airport.
- Positive real estate predictions, especially in areas hosting the FIFA World Cup.

Conclusion:

- Qatar's progress, hosting FIFA World Cup, and economic stability make it an attractive destination for work, education, and investment.
- Encourages consideration of Qatar for its safety, economic opportunities, and cultural richness.
- Upcoming website launch announcement; requests prayers.
